

Continuous Free Music for Everyone All Weekend Great Bands & DJs

Friday, October 8th after the Parade

Grass Fed-A Bluegrass Quintet born from a Bluegrass jam in Rhinebeck, NY. Performing up and down the Hudson Valley, they have quickly drawn popularity by playing traditional Bluegrass tunes AS WELL AS originals. Grass Fed shares old sound with new ideas that local audiences are loving. Each of the members agrees, “Ultimately it is all about having fun.”

The Higgins and Smith Bluegrass Band will be kick-off Saturday afternoon's venue with a true Bluegrass sound: featuring non-other than JC Higgins on Rhythm Guitar and Vocals and LC Smith on the 5 string Banjo also assisting with Vocals. These two played together for 20 years as the Blue Mt. Boys Bluegrass Band. In 1996 they put together the Fiddlers Bridge Band, and then in bringing in Terry Ghee on Fiddle, Brian Mortensen on Guitar and vocals, Then in 2009 with major personal changes they changed the band's name to Higgins and Smith Bluegrass Band with its new members, Matt Bowe playing Mandolin and Guitar, Ron Bellis on the Bass and Terry Ghee playing Fiddle.

Closing out a wonderful day of free music and events, beginning at 6PM Saturday and running continuously (with the exception of a half hour break from 7:30-8PM for a SPECTACULAR FIREWORKS display right over the top of Lake George South, returning to the Town Garage from 8-10:30PM) you will be delighted to listen to the sounds of Mountain Music DJ Service: hosted by Mike and Diane, bringing current sounds for everyone's listening pleasure. Due to their extensive collection, Mike and Diane are known for their ability to accommodate every kind of request.

Specializing in German/Austrian Music

hailing from New Paltz, NY and playing at every kind of festival and celebration up and down the Hudson River Valley, comes to us (none other than) The Joe Unger Band. His fantastic melodies and marches are not new to the ears of attendees of Germantown's prior Oktoberfest Celebrations, for he and his band have entertained us with his Oompah German style at most of our 20 annual Oktoberfests. Visit us, lakeside and under the pavilion, to enjoy Joe's delightful entertainment, on Sunday, October 10, 2010 from 1-5 PM.
